Dublin, February 25.

THIS Day the House of Commons of this Kingdom, attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant at the Castle, with the following humble Address, to be transmitted to England, in order to be laid before His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of an absolute Peace with Spain; a Peace, which we doubt not, through your Majesty's Goodness, to reap the Benefit of in common with the rest of your Subjects: The more we think of the Miseries of a War (at best uncertain in its Event) the more we are led to admire your Majesty's Wisdom, in obtaining for us the Blessings of Peace, and the Increase of Trade, and Riches the Consequence thereof.

As we have had, through the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign, many and great Instances of your Goodness towards us, we cannot omit on this Occasion, to return you our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your constant and unwearied Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects.

Under the Government of so good a Prince, we shall endeavour to make ourselves an happy People, by taking all Opportunities of approving ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Hague, March 14, N. S. It is expected the States of the Province of Holland will on the 16th Instant dispose of the Military Employments of their Repartition that are vacant. The Preparations for the intended Encampment in the Neighbourhood of Nimeguen, are carried on with Diligence, a great Number of Tents having been already made for the Officers and Soldiers, and all the Officers are ordered to repair to their respective Regiments by the 25th of this Month. Some Companies of Swils are to come hither, to serve in the Room of the Foot Guards, who are to march to the Encampment, as are also the Horse-Guards, who are to be relieved by some Troops of Dragoons. Captain Schryver, who lately arrived in the Texel from the Mediterranean, with the three Men of War under his Command, has been nominated to return to Algiers with two Men of War, and with the Presents from the States General to that Government. Instructions are drawing up for M. de Ginkel, who 'tis said is to set out forthwith for Berlin.

Whitehall, March 7.

This Day Sir Charles Hotham, Bart. set out by His Majesty's Order for the Court of Berlin.

General Post Office, March 3, 1729.

Whereas the Post Boy in carrying the Bristol Mail of Saturday last from London, was set upon and robbed by a Single Person on Foot, about Four o'Clock on Sunday morning, betwixt Knightsbridge and Kensington. The Postmaster-General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon his Conviction be entitled to a Reward of Two hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any one Accomplice in the said Robbery shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two hundred Pounds, and also have the King's most Gracious Pardon.

The Person who committed this Robbery is described to be a lusty Man in a dark coloured Riding Coat: He carried away all the Bags of the Mail upon the Post Horse, which was taken up in Long-acre as a Stray some time after the Robbery.
